 - vii. Work with the president and the board to draw up a budget;
 - viii. Collect membership fees.
- E. The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for

BYLAWS OF THE BELLEVILLE RUNNING CLUB

1. Carrying out the provisions of these bylaws;
 2. Coordinating and supporting the activities of the standing committees;
 3. Ensuring the financial solvency of the BRC;
 4. Supervising and approving the BRC budget;
 5. Ensuring the equitable distribution of funds and efforts among the various activities coordinated by the BRC, including but not limited to the issues of race sponsorship and charitable donations;
 6. Maintaining the good standing of the BRC within the community.
- F. Board members shall be elected for two-year terms. There is no limit on the number of terms a board member can serve. Terms begin in January.
- G. Board members will serve staggered terms. They will be elected in blocks of four and five in alternate years. Those nominees receiving the highest vote totals are elected to fill the vacant seats.
- H. The president can appoint new board members, after consultation with the board, if a member leaves.

VI. COMMITTEES

- A. General rules.
1. Appointing authority. The president has sole authority to appoint the chairperson of any newly created committee. The chairperson of each committee has sole authority to appoint members of a committee, fill vacancies, and release any committee member(s) (with or without cause) from further duty; however, the board may, by majority vote, deny one or more of those actions.
 2. Length of service of committee members. Members are appointed promptly after each annual meeting (or promptly after the creation of a committee). The length of service for all committee members terminates at the end of the next annual meeting; the president may then reappoint selected members and appoint new members (although the board, by majority vote, may overrule any particular choice).
 3. Quorum and manner of acting. A majority of a committee constitutes a quorum, and the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the committee. Each committee may adopt rules for its own governance not inconsistent with these bylaws or with rules adopted by the board.
- B. Permanent (“standing” committees). The BRC’s permanent committees shall be as follows:
1. Membership Committee. The functions include, but are not limited to the following:
 - i. Maintaining an accurate membership roll;
 - ii. Providing membership information to the community;
 - iii. Recruiting new members;
 - iv. Maintaining statistics from races;
 - v. Ordering and distributing BRC t-shirts and other gear.
 2. Group Run Committee. The functions include, but are not limited to the following:
 - i. Coordinating all group runs;
 - ii. Coordinating additional running events;
 - iii. Coordinating any post-run social events.
 3. Public Relations Committee. The functions include, but are not limited to the following:
 - i. Acting as a liaison between the BRC and community race directors on issues of scheduling, race assistance, etc;
 - ii. Promoting the BRC and BRC events through the media;
 4. Special Events Committee. The functions include, but are not limited to the following:
 - i. Coordinating the BRC’s involvement in such special events as the Belleville Chili Cookoff, River to River Relay, out of town race trips, etc.

BYLAWS OF THE BELLEVILLE RUNNING CLUB

- ii. Coordinating trash pickup, etc to fulfill the BRC's responsibilities for the City of Belleville's Adopt a Trail program;
- iii. Providing nonrunning activities for the community and the general membership such as banquets, etc;
5. Training Committee.
 - i. Coordinating all training sessions (Speedwork, Beginner's 5K Training, Half/Full Marathon Training, etc);
- C. Other committees and support groups. Other committees and support groups include: (a) operational, ongoing or annual functions and programs not designated as permanent in these bylaws, and (b) ad hoc committees such as task forces and special panels.
 1. Creation and dissolution. Committees not otherwise listed in these bylaws are formed and/or dissolved by a majority vote of the board. The board may take this action based on the recommendation of the president, a BRC member, or through its own deliberations.
 2. Terms. All committees formed by the board continue until the next annual meeting, unless dissolved sooner by the board. After that annual meeting, all committees, other than the permanent committees, are either reauthorized by the board or allowed to terminate.

The board is to be kept informed of the activities and progress of each group and has oversight duties only in regard to the final outcome (approval, acceptance or rejection, ratification, etc.). Outcomes that do not meet with board approval may be returned to the group for justification, reconsideration, or further work as needed.

VII. CLUB MEETINGS

- A. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the BRC shall be held once each calendar year in January. The date and location of the meeting shall be determined by a majority vote of the Board of Directors and shall be announced at least one (1) month in advance. At this time, new board members will be installed and the budget will be reviewed and ratified.
- B. Regular Meetings. The BRC shall hold meetings at least four times a year and more frequently if called by the President. The date and location shall be announced at least twenty days in advance by the board of directors.
- C. All club meetings are open to the public.
- D. Quorum. A simple majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each member of the Board shall be entitled to vote and the act of the majority of those present at the meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board.
- E. Order at Meetings. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings at all Board meetings when not inconsistent with these Bylaws. The order of business at all regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be as follows:
 1. Action on minutes of last meeting
 - i. Minutes shall be published on the club's website for public review. If minutes do not contain votes on club spending and/or event organization, the minutes may be posted on the club's website before the next club meeting else the minutes must be approved at the following meeting.
 2. Treasurer's report
 3. Reports, if any, of any other officers
 4. Old business
 5. New business
 6. Adjournment

BYLAWS OF THE BELLEVILLE RUNNING CLUB

F. The Board of Directors shall not be restricted from meeting privately outside of the Club Meetings in preparation for Club Meetings, but shall not conduct any official business at such meetings.

VIII. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the bylaws require approval of two-thirds of the voting membership.

IX. DISSOLUTION

In the event of pending dissolution of the BRC, the BRC's founders shall be given the opportunity to re-establish the BRC using the name, logos, etc in existence prior to the official organization of the BRC according to these bylaws. In the event that the BRC's founders choose not to execute this right and the BRC were to dissolve, the funds in the treasury, after all creditors have been paid, shall go to a 501C(3) organization as determined by the Board of Directors.

Adopted on March 12, 2012

Amendment Changes / Additions

- Amendment 1 was adopted on 01/24/15. The amendment made the following changes:
 - Section IV, A, 1 – Revised partial year membership;
 - Section IV, B – Added 5 year membership fees;
 - Section V, F – Simplified description of election process;
 - Section VI, B – Added Training Committee and Special Events Committee
 - Section VII – Changed the month of the annual meeting from December to January.
